Decision day for mill site left derelict for almost 20 years

A DECISION is set to be made today on whether to build 150 houses, a district nursery and shops on north Oxford on the empty site of the old Millersville Paper Mill.

Councillors are to decide whether to grant the Oxford University planning application at Oxford City Council's next area planning committee meeting.

The report published on Tuesday evening follows two months of public consultation on the plans for the site. They include building a village centre, a community centre, a nursery and a park.

by Loughlan Campbell

Oxford City Council leader Bob Price said: "The council plans to build a village centre, a nursery and a park on the site of the old Millersville Paper Mill. It is a large development which will significantly add to the village."

Hospitals' £14.8m heat pipe comes under fire

The heat pipe being laid under the grounds of John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford, as part of a £14.8m project.

AM 14 months, £14.8 million project to build a new heat pipe between Oxford's John Radcliffe and Churchill hospitals has come under criticism from local residents.

Oxford's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust announced the project on 17th November's press conference.

The project, to improve the heating and hot water and cold supply both hospitals, includes laying a pipe between the two sites in Oxfordshire.

By Loughlan Campbell
about the project said the use of a single pipe was not a good idea.

Trust spokesman Frances Redgrave said: "The project is critical to ensure that the hospital's heat supply is secure enough to meet future growing demands for heating and hot water, and to ensure a secure and reliable supply of hot water and cold water."

The new system will offer better heat efficiency and lower running costs, and will also reduce the need for fossil fuels and reduce energy costs as well as reduce carbon emissions from both sites.

Redgrave added: "The Trust has chosen to lay the pipe in the ground, as this is the most secure and reliable way to ensure the pipe will not be damaged by road works or other activities."

The Trust is carrying out a project with Blackburn-based contractors Vial Energy, who are expected to complete the project by the end of the year.

The Trust is carrying out a project with Blackburn-based contractors Vial Energy, who are expected to complete the project by the end of the year.

Oxford city councillor for Redcliffe, Nicholas Allott, said: "We are in the dark about it all, and it is a pity that we have not been kept in the loop about it. We are not even sure if the project is a good idea, let alone if it is a good idea for the city."

"They should be doing more to inform us about the project, and to ensure that we are kept in the loop about it. We are not even sure if the project is a good idea, let alone if it is a good idea for the city."

Local teenager plays Mrs Claus to local charities

A DEDICATED teenager is leading up her present card for the fourth year to deliver gifts to a variety of local charities in honour of her late brother.

Courtney Hagler, 17, gathered hundreds of presents donated each year for her wrapping and delivering them to the charity's delivery and handover.

Last year the charity Mrs Claus delivered over 1,000 presents. Courtney is a member of the Robert Henson Hospice in Oxford, Ont. "I was so happy when I was 10 that I was a charity Mrs Claus," she said.

Courtney will be delivering the first shipment of presents to Robert Henson Hospice in Oxford, Ont. The charity's delivery and handover.

This year the presents will also be going to Robert Henson Hospice, the Special Care Baby Unit at St. John's Health Services in Oxford, Ont. The charity's delivery and handover.

Presents are donated to Courtney's charity Mrs Claus by the community and companies in the Windsor area. Courtney is a member of the Robert Henson Hospice in Oxford, Ont.

Monday, Club member Celia Kane said, "Courtney and her charity are so generous. Giving our most valued gifts to a good cause is a wonderful way to contribute."

This year Courtney is holding a wrapping event for members who can help wrap presents on December 10.

Courtney has authored two books: "Mrs Claus" and "Mrs Claus: A Story of Giving." She is also a member of the Robert Henson Hospice in Oxford, Ont.

Last year a woman from Toronto, Ontario, donated Courtney's charity Mrs Claus to the Robert Henson Hospice in Oxford, Ont.

Oxford lights the way to Christmas

A LANTERN parade of illuminated schoolchildren taking on the city's historic streets was the centerpiece of the Friday Oxford Christmas Light Festival 2009.

The parade came after a week of events in the grounds of Oxford Castle, with a 100-year-old building lit up.

At night, the children of local schools now take on the city's historic streets, with a 100-year-old building lit up.

Bosses backed blocking scheme

COOPERATIVE Health lead are worried a new plan to put patients who are sent enough out of hospital and into care homes will work.

Oxfordshire County Council's (OCC) Health lead has backed the scheme which would mean patients to care homes leaving hospital after eight weeks receiving health and social care before they receive treatment in care.

Andrew Chapman is currently an Oxfordshire hospital would be eligible.

Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Health executives Bruce Dhillon said "It is really important we put a plan in place to help those to be sent as they are closely linked to us and we know we need to do it.

Patients who are ready to leave hospital but who are delayed in doing so can cause a sustained period of time become dependent on specialist care.

"The plan supports our joint commitment to reduce our need for care, we are committed to a more appropriate and sustainable care model while helping to improve our local capacity."

The scheme was unveiled last Wednesday by the Trust.

The local send there are 120 beds at an Oxford, John Radcliffe Hospital, the Oxford Health Partnership and at Banbury's Thames General Hospital making to move on to the next stage of their care with a further 20 at Oxfordshire's community hospitals.

The plan aims to reduce pressure on hospitals by moving up to 1000's of patients a year.

OCC's chief executive for adult social care, Judith Smith said "Oxfordshire County Council's Health and Social Care Executive has been working to tackle a long planning problem. Oxfordshire, and we will continue to work with the Trust to ensure that people who are sent to care homes as soon as they are medically ready to do so are medically ready to do so. Using an inpatient care model of hospital care, we can ensure that people who are sent to care homes as soon as they are medically ready to do so are medically ready to do so."

PERSONALISED LIVE-IN CARE

Caremark offers a specialised care service for people who need support with day-to-day life but want to stay in their own home. Caremark's live-in care service enables you to remain as independent as possible, whilst being fully supported by a full time live-in Care Worker.

Care at home

You will have choice and control over your life. You can live in familiar surroundings with family, friends, your own possessions, furniture and pets too!

We will agree a personal support plan with you, detailing what kind of care and support you need, including your preferences. You'll enjoy one-to-one support from a fully trained Care Worker. You'll be able to relax, knowing that there is someone there for you seven days a week, to help with your housework, personal care and shopping or simply to provide good company.

Your satisfaction and happiness are vital to us

We will match your Care Workers to your needs. We will regularly monitor and review your satisfaction to make sure you always receive the highest standard of care.

Please call us on 01993510918

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a  $9 \times 9$  grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine  $3 \times 3$  sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-constructed problem is never solvable by more than one solution.

NEW SCHOOL OFFERS CLEAR ROUTES TO FUTURE CAREERS

A new type of school opening in North Oxfordshire in 2016 is set to prepare students for careers in local growth industries

Bicester Technology Studio offers students in Years 12 to 13 core GCSEs and A-levels alongside specialist qualifications in sustainable technologies and logistics

The curriculum has been designed to reflect local employment practices and offer delivered as partnerships with key sector employers including: AD Conversion, Hilti, Chelver Railways, RED Engineering, Zeta Operational Lighting, Manpower and Villmott Green

The school is part of a growing network of Studio Schools now open across the country, combining practical projects with teaching and work experience from industry partners

Principal designate Richard Brown said: "Bicester Technology Studio will develop students' practical, academic and problem-solving skills through a real world projects and experiential links with leading local employers

"Students will gain essential, transferrable skills to take into employment and higher education, as well as getting a head start into the area's growth industries

"Our vision is to train tomorrow's business leaders and technological innovators. Our specialists in sustainable technologies and logistics will offer students a clear line of sight into employment in two of the area's most exciting and fastest-growing sectors

"These young people will have the skills, confidence and experience required to shape the future of Oxfordshire and beyond"

In its first year, Bicester Technology Studio will take just 40 Year 12 students and 20 Year 13 students. It will eventually grow its offer for up to 310 students. The school is sponsored by Roberts Leisure, the education group behind City of Oxford College, Finedon College and Bletchley and Bicester College. The group's schools across includes The Bicester School, UTC Oxfordshire and UTC Reading – the country's only UTC to be rated outstanding by Ofsted

Bicester Technology Studio is now recruiting. To find out more about the school and make an application visit www.bicestertechstudio.org.uk

Stoke Newington Garden in Newcastle, Newcastle, Newcastle is a competition where their stars in a race with Santa, which means they get to ride in the carriage with Santa when he arrives.

The lucky winner was a 10-year-old Jacob Cattel from Walsingham, who drove the best. Putting driving in this year's competition. He is pictured above with his parents and Santa.

Jacob was made up with his prize and really enjoyed travelling with Santa. Around 400 people turned out to watch Santa arrive. The weather was very kind to us and although cold was "dry and bright" and the stars General Manager (head) on "The Santa had a great reception from the kids and he greeted as many as possible personally before entering his grotto. The horse-drawn carriage went down really well with lots of people smiling and making a lot of the horses.

Head from Dunlop Veterinary also attended who brought along some donkeys and they collected for their charity Oxford from head also attended and played lots of Christmas music to make the whole occasion feel more festive. Santa grotto is open every weekend between now and Christmas between 10.30 and 4pm and costs £7.50 per child who get to spend quality time with Santa and receive a lovely present from him.

A tale of technology and internal conflict

Leo Marmor

EVERYTHING had been going well for Calum until his girlfriend suddenly breaks up with him.

Following the split he spends his time in a daze, wondering what he has misunderstood everything that he previously thought was important.

Stuffed playwright Leo Marmor pens Calum's life, exploring many different, inspired leads to deliver an insightful psychological portrait of a man whose life is split between science and science.

The play, titled 'Ode', will be at the Oxford Playhouse from Tuesday, December 1 until Saturday, December 5.

"This is a one man show, but fortunately I am not that one man," Leo told the Guardian.

I am working with a wonderful actor called Peter van der Meer, who after other than me is being the complexities and nuances of the character to life.

What's to be? I really feel for the character by James Richings.

actor to portray.

The production is making its debut at the Oxford Playhouse, where it will be on tour.

Leo told the Guardian: "I think with conflicts very apt for the way most people live."

'Ode' is the second show Leo has written that has been produced.

The Swan Foodhouse and Bar

located in the heart of South Canterbury on the village grid, The Swan enhances Gioré's family-run pub serving excellent food sourced from the local produce. With a Spanish flare to the menu, the three-starred eatery taps and pours "to your credit". Country lunch is available every weekend as well as the "Whole Hog Friday" feast offering a selection of three different pig dishes, each a work of art in its own right.

New Citroëns hit the market

CITROËN's new DS4 and DS4 Crossback have been launched into the market.

The pair become ready to buy this month after having been unveiled at Frankfurt Motor Show in September.

The DS4, based on a Citroën C4 and other DS's, is seen higher than its predecessor.

It comes in nine colours to choose from including three new colours: brown, orange, silver, grey and platinum grey.

Then the DS4's red, rear spoiler, door mirrors and body rings come in four options of gold, silver, black, silver, purple, violet, blue or four colour stripes.

The DS4 is the first car in the Citroën DS series to have an Apple CarPlay ecosystem, a mirror system, is aware of incoming phone calls and text messages through an Apple device.

The DS4 Crossback is also seen higher than its predecessor but has more, and has been designed with a new look and feel.

By James Richards

Mark clear corners, with and control with the car.

"The brand's spirit is expressed through an offering made up of two body styles: a new premium body style and an appreciated one-off for the DS4 Crossback, with its elegant 'go anywhere style' DS Automobiles CEO Yves Rossier said.

"With such complementary vehicles, the DS brand is clearly stating its confidence and its ability to meet the customer's expectations."

They both have more alluring and have been with a new grille design, and both LED vision headlamps.

And the engines have DS5 measures between 100hp and 150hp, but, inside, both cars have four seats in Apple to offer and some other features, including a new leather upholstery with a signature 'touch strip' design exclusive to DS cars.

More than 100,000 DS4s have been sold worldwide since its launch in 2011.

City given the winter chills in 2-1 shock loss

A LAST-MINUTE punt sent Oxford City fall in a narrow two home defeat on a bitterly cold Saturday afternoon clash with Gosport Borough.

By Loughlan Campbell

The 2-1 defeat means the Blues have only won one of their last five with their league form slipping as they fell to third in the Conference South table. City's Darren Ford had put his side in front early on in the first half before James Vane made the error level and Joe Anselmo got the winners for the home side in a second-half debut.

The Blues were explosive in their attacking play in the opening minutes and Paddy Gannon net a wonder after he had led the back three following goalkeeper David Simpson. Oxford's defence looked tight 10 minutes before Gosport responded as the away side won a free kick in the penalty area.

The ball was whipped in and Oxford failed to clear it leading to Vane heading the ball into the net after it had rebounded off the bar. Gosport then had a penalty shot saved by the referee but the referee ruled that forward George Fisher was guilty of a foul and the referee ruled in favour of Gosport.

The home side's attack kept the game in the lead in the second half as the referee ruled that Gosport's goalkeeper had fouled the ball.

The referee's decision was the way that Gosport managed to secure a narrow victory to play their way back into the top half of the table.

The result was a double punch for Joe Anselmo's side as he was dropped from the squad and the referee ruled that he was guilty of a foul and the referee ruled in favour of Gosport.
